SECTION: B (50 MARKS)

51. Read the passage below carefully and then, in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

“Hurry up, girls, the invigilators are already checking the candidates,” shouted Daphine, our class monitor. It was a crucial moment because everyone was rushing to the entrance of the school mainhall to be checked a head of a special examination.

However, on reaching the hall, I got surprised to find that they were our fellow candidates acting as invigilators. I enquired of Kemmy, my desk mate what was going on. She told me that they had started with a briefing by the headteacher, who was Mitchelle, one of the candidates. Without delay, I also presented myself for checking amidst confusion. No sooner had we settled in the properly arranged mainhall than the “invigilators” distributed the question papers. It was then that I realized that it wasn’t a joke as I had thought. It was a real examination moment.

Amazingly when I read the examination paper, I found out that it was just a revision paper. At that time, they ordered us to begin answering the paper right away. How easy the exam was! When it clocked the ending time, the bell was rung and we all stood. The “invigilators” collected the scripts and sealed them in a parcel. They called upon two candidates to sign on the parcel as proof that it had been sealed. Nicole and Desire, disguising as UNEB scouts, received the parcels.

Hardly had the exercise ended when all of the girls burst into laughter. Looking confused, I asked Ashimwe, one of the invigilators what the whole drama was about. She told me that we had been acting what exactly takes place before and during the PLE exercise. I, too, couldn’t help laughing.
