Date: 17/April/2020

Read the poem below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

THE WORLD'S ENEMY

You started as joke late last year in September
In one of the cities in China called Wuhan. Spreading slowly within the city with a dangerous aim of capturing the whole globe.
You suddenly created fear among Chinese which affected them the most.

You moved to near by cities in China. Infecting every human you came across, white or black, young or old, rich or poor just through body contact, body fluids, and contact with other surfaces like wood, plastics and metal.

In a blink of an eye, you crossed to Italy, Spain, and USA.
Spreading like wild fire. Filling hospitals with uncountable numbers of infected people. Killing people day and night without cure.

You have given our doctors sleepless nights.
Trying to search for your cure but in vain. You have created social distances in the world making school children to stay at home. You have not cared about how boring school children feel staying at home. You have made school children miss their school like never before.

What a horrible nightmare you are !

FOR GOD AND MY COUNTRY.
