54. Read the poem below carefully and answer the questions that follow.

There lived an old wife Alone in a cottage not far from Hichin, And one bright night, by the full moonlight
Came a ghost right into her kitchen.

About that kitchen neat and clean
The ghost goes pottering round But poor old wife is deaf as a boot And so hears never a sound.

The ghost blows up the kitchen fire,
As bold can be
He helps himself from the harder shelf
But never a sound hears she

From corner to corner, he runs about
And into the cupboard he peeps
He rattles the door and bumps on the floor
But still the old wife sleeps.

James Reeves
