

WEEK ONE111 PRIMARY FOUR ENGLISH CLASSWORK

Tuesday Lesson : Future Simple Tense.

This tense talks about actions that will happen after now.

We use "shall" and "will " when expressing actions in the future simple tense. Shall and Will can be used in two ways, either within sentences or in the beginning of questions.

Note: Pronouns We and I are used with shall.

Pronouns She, He, it , they, You, and other singular and plural nouns use will in sentences.

Examples.

1. I shall travel to town tomorrow.
2. We shall eat some fruits in the evening.
3. They will wash clothes next weekend.
4. It will rain heavily next month.
5. She will sweep the whole house in an hour tomorrow

Activity.

Use shall or will to complete the sentences below.

1. Ilearn how to drive a car tomorrow.
2. Mary..... prepare lunch for us on Monday.
3. We.....eat the mangoes tomorrow morning.
4. Icut short my hair next week.

Thursday Lesson.

Comprehension

Tom has met Yusuf at the market and the following is their conversation. Study it very carefully and answer the questions correctly.

Tom: Good morning, Yusuf. When shall we do the exams for this term ?

Yusuf: Good morning to you. Well, we shall do the exams next month.

Tom: Who will set the exams ?

Yusuf: Our teachers will set the exams.

Tom: Do you think Cathy will pass ?

Yusuf: I don't think she will pass these exams because she's been absent minded during lessons.

Tom: Indeed, you're right. Let's talk to her tomorrow and encourage her to listen to the teacher so that she can also perform and get promoted to P5.

Yusuf. That's true.

Tom: At what time shall we begin these exams ?

Yusuf: We shall begin these exams at 9:00am

Tom: What will you do if you fail ?

Yusuf: I shall revise my books more seriously next time.

Tom: Let me hope we shall both perform well and get promoted to P5.

Yusuf: I hope so too.
