Valeria's Wedding Day

Last Saturday, my cousin Valeria wedded at St. Agnes Church. Relatives and friends came in big numbers to attend the wedding. The church service began at 2:00p.m and ended at 3:00p.m. Thereafter all the guests went to Kagga Gardens for the reception.

It was a very well organised place. There was a lot of food and drinks. Everybody was free to eat whatever he or she wanted. My mother ate irish potatoes, matooke and chicken.

I enjoyed eating traditional dishes so I served myself with matooke, millet bread, sweet potatoes, rice and beef. After getting food, I picked a bottle of soda. My mother picked a bottle of mineral water.

Throughout the reception, different choirs sang songs to entertain guests. Later in the day, the couple cut and served the cake to their guests.

The last item on the programme was giving gifts to the couple. All those with gifts moved to the table where Valeria and her husband were standing and gave in their gifts. The couple was very happy for the gifts they got. At 9.00pm, the function ended and we went back home.
