

Primary Two English notes

Week 4

Monday

Composition

Make six(6) correct sentences from the table.

A doctor	makes	peoples' hair.
A teacher	keeps	furniture.
A policeman	flies	an aeroplane.
A carpenter	treats	sick people.
A pilot	teaches	children.
A barber	cuts	law and order.

Tuesday

THEME: THE HUMAN BODY AND HEALTH

SUBTHEME : Parts of the body and their functions.

Vocabulary

Parts of the body and their plurals

head – heads

leg – legs

hair – hair

nose - noses

tooth -teeth

hair -hair

toe- toes

mouth -mouths

knee –knees

Activity

Read and spell the words in the vocabulary list.

Make five (5) correct sentences from the table.

I use	my legs	for tasting.
	my teeth	for walking.
	my nose	for smelling.
	my knees	for chewing food.
	my tongue	for kneeling.

Wednesday

Punctuation

Capital letters and full stops

A telling sentence begins with a capital letter.

Capital letters are used to begin names of

- a) people
- b) titles of plays
- c) days of the week
- d) places
- e) titles of films
- f) months of the year
- g) titles of books
- h) titles of poems
- i) public holidays
- Easter
- Christmas
- Good Friday
- Labor day
- Heroes day

Oral activity

Mention examples of where capital letters are used.

Thursday

FULL STOPS

A full stop is a dot put at the end of telling sentences.

Examples

I am seven years old.

Our school is found along Muwayire road.

Exercise 1

Circle words which should begin with capital letters.

train	nurse	kampala	Friday	christmas
flower	tuesday	peter	annet	kibuli
banana	jane	tree	monday	fred

Friday

Exercise 2

Punctuate these sentences correctly

i have two brothers

he must work very hard

we went to gulu last week

aunt nalule is a nurse

the book I read is Cinderella

I will go to school on monday