SECTION B

51. Read the passage below very carefully and, in full sentences, answer the questions about it in full sentences.

One Saturday, I went with mother to Kisozi Market, which is one of the biggest in our sub-county. I had a duck which uncle Dominic gave me when it was a duckling. I went to sell it so as to buy myself a pair of shoes for Christmas. Mother took a goat for sale so as to purchase various items for the big occasion.

On the way, we met farmers and traders bringing different items to the market. By ten o'clock, we had reached the market.

At the market entrance, there was a rope stretching from one side to another. The rope blocked people from entering the market directly. Mother had to pay some money to the gentlemen who later allowed us in. Many other people were already at the market with different commodities heaped on the ground and others were in the stalls. Some traders sang songs to attract as many customers as possible. I stood still listening to and enjoying the interesting songs.

We sat down under a tree shade and waited anxiously for customers. Some customers tried to bargain, but mother did not want to sell her goat for anything less than what she wanted. Later, a young man bargained and offered her fifty thousand shillings which she accepted.

Sometime later, I sold my duck for fifteen thousand shillings only. We then moved through the crowd. Mother held me by the hand and we went to the place where the shoes were being sold. She helped me to make a choice. I was very happy to get my first pair of shoes in life. I then paid ten thousand shillings, leaving me with a balance five thousand.

Mother used some of her money to buy meat, plates, salt and tomatoes. She kept the remaining amount in her handbag. We then moved home happily.
