

P.4 English class work Notes Week Four (29/June/2020)

Monday Lesson.

Grammar: Use oftooto.....within sentences.

This is a conjunction used to join sentences with a, negative idea therefore, we don't need to use " not " in the same sentence.

Note: When using ...too ..to., the pronoun at the end of the second sentence should be dropped eg;

Nathan is very lazy. I cannot help him .

Nathan is too lazy for me to help. (Pronoun him is dropped)

Other Examples.

1. That lady is very fat. She cannot run.

That lady is too fat to run.

2. John is unsteady. He cannot pass the examination.

John is too unsteady to pass the examination.

3. It is very hot. We cannot walk for an hour.

It is too hot for us to walk for an hour.

Activity.

Rewrite the sentences below usingtooto....

1. The box is very heavy. Aidah cannot lift it.

2. The river was very fast. We could not swim in it.

3. French is very difficult. They will not pass it well.

4. It was very dark last night. We could not see the thief.

5. That is very big. Those young boys cannot climb it.

6. Most hares are very fast. They cannot easily be caught by village dogs.

7. It is very col at night. You cannot go without a coat.

Tuesday Lesson

Comprehension

Read the notice below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

TESTING FOR CORONA VIRUS

The ministry of health wishes to inform the general public to go and test for corona virus at their health centers beginning from Monday 7th July to Friday 17th July 2020. The exercise will begin at 8:00 am and will end at 5:00 pm. Everyone above 18 is expected to carry his national identity card. The children will be tested only if they are with their parents.

Note: This exercise is for free.

Minister of Health,

Dr.Ruth Aceng.

Questions.

1. What is the notice about ?
2. Who is informed according to the notice ?
3. When will the exercise take place ?
4. Who wrote the notice ?
5. Write the title of the notice.
6. At what time will the exercise end ?
7. Why do you think all person above 18 are expected to carry their national identity cards?
- 8 Write Dr in full.

Wednesday Lesson.

Grammar: Using:.....so.....that..... in sentences.

This conjunction is used to join sentences that are related.

Examples

1. He was a very rich man. He bought the whole village.

He was so rich that he bought the whole village.

2. Robert is very popular. He will be elected as a leader.

Robert is so popular that he will be elected as a leader.

3. She is very old. She can't walk on her own.

She is so weak that she can't walk in her own.

Rewrite the sentences below using.....sothat.....

1. He revised very hard. He passed well.

2. The day was very hot. We couldn't rest in the house.

3. Peter is very tall. He can touch the ceiling.

4. The food was very cold. Nobody could eat it.

5. The examinations were very difficult. Most of the pupils failed them.

6. The school is very old. It may fall down anytime.

7. Corona virus is very dangerous. It made everyone to stay at home for four months.

8. He is very intelligent. He got a bursary from the government.

Thursday Lesson.

Comprehension. Story.

Read the story below carefully and answer the questions that follow in full sentences.

MARY'S NEW DRESS

Mary is a short brown girl. She is a Ugandan and her friend, Fronah is a Kenyan. On Monday, Mary went to Seeta Market to buy a new dress. She asked her friend Fronah to escort her. " What colour of dress are you going to buy ? " asked her friend. Mary said she was going to buy a blue dress.

Reaching the market, which was far from her her home, Mary could not find a blue dress of her size. The blue dresses around were large yet Mary was a short small girl.

Mary was very annoyed that she had wasted a lot of time and decided to go back home without a dress. She promised to go to Bukerere Market the following day and see if she could buy it from there.

Questions.

1. What is the story about ?
2. Who of the two girls is a Kenyan ?
3. When did Mary go to the market ?
4. What dress did Mary want to buy ?
5. Why did Mary get annoyed ?
6. Where did she promise to go the following day ?
7. Give the opposite of short
8. Was Mary's home near the market ?

Friday Lesson.

Grammar : Using:.....such a/an.....that.....

This conjunction is equally used to join sentences that are related.

Articles a and an are used before an adjective in the first clause of the sentence.

Examples

1. Corona is a very dangerous disease. It forced everyone in the world to stay at home.

Corona is such a dangerous disease that it forced everyone in the world to stay at home.

2. Peter is a very tall gentleman. He can pick mangos from the tree.

Peter is such a tall gentleman that he can pick mangoes from the tree.

3. This is a very easy test. Everyone will pass it.

This is such an easy test that everyone will pass.

Activity.

Rewrite the sentences below using:....such a/ anthat.....

1. Our class teacher is a very hardworking man. He marks all our books in one hour.
2. My mother is a very kind woman. All of us admire her.
3. Andrew is a very strong man. He can lift fifty kilograms of posho flour.
4. Friday was a very hot day. My grandmother couldn't walk for an hour.
5. Mosquitoes are very dangerous insects. They kill 116 people in Uganda daily.
6. My father is a very honest man. Everybody likes him at his place of work.
7. 2020 has been a very difficult year. So many people have nothing to eat.
8. I'm a very smart child. I don't usually fail any questions.