

P.3 LITERACY 1B WEEK4

Monday 29th June, 2020.

THE POLICE FORCE

The main duty of the Police force is to maintain law and order.

Departments of Police

- Dog section
- Anti-riot police
- Military police
- Traffic police
- Mobile patrol unit
- Criminal investigation department (CID)
- Anti-smuggling unit
- Passport section Fire brigade

The title given to the head of the Uganda police is the Inspector General of Police (IGP).

The current Inspector General of Police in Uganda is Major General Martin Okoth Ochola.

Roles of the police

- It keeps law and order.
- Investigates cases and crimes
- Controls traffic flow
- Enforces law Puts out fire

NB: The police is under the Ministry of Internal Affairs.

Activity

1. What is the main duty of the Uganda Police?
2. State any two departments of Police.
3. Which department of Police controls traffic on roads?
4. Write IGP in full.

5. Under which ministry is the Uganda Police?

Tuesday 30th June, 2020.

THE ARMY

- The army protects the lives of people and their property in the country.
- The title given to the head of the army in Uganda is a Commander-in-Chief.
- The current commander-in-chief of the Uganda Army is H. E. Yoweri Kaguta Museveni.
- Another name for the Uganda army is the Uganda People's Defence Forces (UPDF).

Roles of the army

- The army protects the country.
- The army fights against foreign invaders (rebels).
- The army entertains people (army band).

NB: The people who work in the army are called army men/ army women (soldiers). Soldiers live in a barracks in houses called unipots.

Activity

1. What is the main duty of the Uganda Army?
2. What title is given to the person who heads the Uganda Army?
3. Write UPDF in full.
4. How do we call a place where soldiers live?
5. Who is the current president of Uganda?

Wednesday 1st July, 2020.

THE PRISON

A prison is a place where law breakers are kept in safe custody.

Prisons transform law breakers into good law abiding citizens.

Roles of the prison

- It keeps law breakers in safe custody.
- It changes law breakers into law abiding citizens.

- It punishes law breakers.

Prisoners are taught different skills.

Skills taught to prisoners.

- Carpentry
 - Music
 - Sports
 - Craft making
 - Digging
- ❖ Prisoners are taken to courts of law for judgment.
 - ❖ Children below 18 years are taken to special places like:- Kampiringisa Prisons, Naguru Remand Home, Bugungu Reformatory School
 - ❖ Luzira prison is the biggest prison in Uganda.
 - ❖ The head of prisons in Uganda is Commissioner General for Prisons.

Activity

1. What is the main duty of the Prisons?
2. Name the largest prison in Uganda.
3. How are prisons important to prisoners?
4. Name any two prisons in Uganda for young children.
5. What title is given to the head of Uganda Prisons?

Thursday 2nd July, 2020.

Private security organs

- ❖ These are privately owned security groups.
- ❖ They also help the police to keep law and order.

Examples of Private Security Organs

- Uganda Securico
- Saracen

- KK security
- Delta force
- Hash
- Securex
- Pinnacle

HEALTH SERVICES

Health services are provided by giving medical care.

Places which provide health services

- Hospitals
- Clinics
- Dispensaries
- Health centres.
- Pharmacies

❖ The main referral hospital in Uganda is Mulago hospital.

Medical care is given through-

- Injections
- Creams
- Lotions
- Tablets
- syrups.

People who provide medical care are;

Doctors	-	treat sick people
Oculists	-	treat eyes
Opticians	-	sell eye glasses
Dentists	-	treat teeth
Surgeons	-	operate on people
Nurses	-	assist doctors when treating patients
Midwives	-	care for pregnant women

Health inspectors - teach people how to live in a clean environment and how to stay healthy.

Activity

1. Write any two private security companies in Uganda,
2. Identify two groups of people that provide health services.
3. What is the work of a surgeon?
4. Mention two places where health services are provided.

