

HISTORY OF EAST AFRICA

INSTRUCTIONS: Print and fill in the correct word or phrases of words in the space provided.

You MUST stick to the facts.

THE NATURE OF THE PORTUGUESE ADMINISTRATION.

1. The Portuguese ruled the coast between.....andAD.
2. The 200 years of the Portuguese rule on the East African Coast were mainly years of The formally profitable trading towns.....and no one prospered including the Portuguese themselves. This was because the failed to establish awith East African coastal people. So manyrefused to accept their.....
3. During this period, there were constant This led to loss ofof the local people. E.g. in 1569, the island ofagainst the Portuguese.
4. The Portuguese dominatedand they were more interested in thethat passed through Sofala than any other goods in the towns to the North. Despite this, Portugal never realized anyfrom the trade.
5. The Portuguese rule was characterized with the decline of most coastal towns. Some towns were even during the conquest. So towns likeanddeclined.
6. Both theand thewere heavily taxed and resulted intoand caused.....
7. Economically, the Portuguese introduced new crops e.g.,, andwhich supplemented on the East African diet.
8. They tried to spreadbut with no remarkable success since many Africans were already converted to and others were strong To make matters worse, the Africans hated the Portuguese so they couldn't accept their
9. New Portuguese words were adopted into the local language for example.....and..... widening the local
10. There was a great decline inespecially in the African towns like and.....
11. Since the Portuguese were dominating the, the local people decided toit from them. So there was a high rate ofby the Africans.

12.....broke out frequently, especially at the coast due to andof crops.

13.....increased between the coastal towns e.g.versus Mombasa.remainedto the Portuguese becausewas her traditional enemy and hence hostile to the them.

14.Politically, the Portuguese divided the coast intoi.e. the areaof the capewas ruled by the captain ofand that to the..... by the captain of the Portuguese Viceroy aton the Indian coast.